Emelie Beckman

Submitted by Sarah Hock

We are delighted to honor Emelie Beckman as this year's Outstanding Student in Communication with an AA-T degree. Emelie has served as this year's president of the Sigma Chi Eta Communication Honor Society where she led a team of her fellow students with passion, creativity and determination. Emelie is an energetic leader who uses her communication skills to build community and advocate for causes rooted in justice. We know she will excel wherever life takes her. We look forward to seeing her fly! We are so proud of you, Emelie! Congratulations from the Communication Faculty
